Question 1: Which one of the following is an example of biotic component of environment?

1. wind
2. water
3. vegetation
4. temperature

Answer: 3

Question 2: Which of the following is a non renewable resource?

1. solar Energy
2. hydrocarbon fuel
3. flora and fauna
4. nuclear power

Answer: 2

Question 3: Sanctuaries are established to_____.

1. develop commercial tree plantation
2. conduct ecotourism on wildlife
3. protect animals
4. conduct research on Biodiversity

Answer: 3

Question 4: Global warming has resulted due to

1. increased emissions of fine particulates from automobiles
2. increased emissions of CO_2 from automobiles
3. Oxides of sulphur and nitrogen
4. lack of rainfall worldwide

Answer: 2

Question 5: The main cause of mismanagement of natural resources is because of _____.

1. a large increase in population
2. the conversion of land for food crops
3. a great demand for petroleum
4. Individuals not using the three R's

Answer: 1

Question 6: Which statement is the most accurate?

1. 60% of the earth's land surface is now used to grow crops and graze animals.
2. Ganga and Yamuna rivers are covered under the Ganga Action Plan-I and II.
3. 9.73% of the total global supply of water is available for human consumption.
4. The 14 major river systems are a part of the Ganga action plan.

Answer: 2

Question 7: The main source of water in India is_____.

1. rain water
2. ground water
3. surface water
4. sea water

Answer: 1

Question 8: Floods are caused by_____.

1. afforestation
2. cutting the forests
3. tilling the land
4. constructing mega dams

Answer: 2